UV You Days are department-specific events that help you become familiar with the department (major) you are interested in. Each UV You Day is open to high school students, their parents, teachers and high school counselors. You will hear from your dean and also faculty and students in your area of interest. You will also be given very important admissions and financial aid deadlines. In addition to all of this, you will enjoy a nice breakfast and lunch, along with hands-on activities. ALL FOR FREE!
