

Multicultural Education Tools on the Internet

SITE TITLE AND LINK	DESCRIPTION
CARTS: Cultural Arts Resources for Teachers and Students www.carts.org/index.html	A project from City Lore, a cultural organization in New York City, that seeks to help teachers use the arts to communication information by linking all the various places where learning occurs. Lists artists you can bring to your classroom, best practices for involving culture, and other school projects.
Historical Speeches Archive www.edchange.org/multicultural/sites/hisspeeches.html	Links to the text of excellent multicultural or diversity-related historical speeches, from John Adams' inaugural address to Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech to Hilary Rodham Clinton discussing women's rights.
Intercultural E-mail Classroom Connections www.iecc.org	A free service from teaching.com where teachers can link with partners in other cultures and countries for e-mail classroom pen pal and project exchanges.
Multicultural Song Index www.edchange.org/multicultural/arts/songs.html	A collective of educators and activists collaborated to create this index of popular songs that can introduce dialogue on various multicultural issues in the classroom. Categories include "Race and Racism," "Social Class," and "Education."
Vandergrift's Children's Literature Page http://Scils.rutgers.edu/%7Ekvander/ChildrenL.it/index.html	Resources on the effects of literature in the lives of young children, and information on how to choose books with illustrations that portray positive multicultural images of childhood.