

TEACHING PEACE & TEACHING TOLERANCE RESOURCES

<http://www.casel.org> The Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning supports social and emotional learning as an essential part of education by providing numerous informational resources for teachers.

<http://www.cfchildren.org> The Committee for Children provides information on curricula addressing bullying, youth violence, and child abuse to promote the safety, well-being and social development of your children.

<http://www.crinfo.org> The Conflict Resolution Education Network (CREnet) serves as an information clearinghouse for materials, articles, news and resources related to conflict resolution education.

<http://www.hamfish.org> The Hamilton Fish Institute serves as a national resource to test the effectiveness of school violence prevention methods and to develop more effective strategies, and provides a searchable database of resources on violence prevention programs and related topics.

<http://www.tolerance.org/teach> Teaching Tolerance serves as a clearinghouse of information about anti-bias programs and activities being implemented in schools across the country, and provides a number of free resources for teachers including specific lesson plans and other classroom activities.

<http://www.wcwonline.org/harassment> The Women's Center at Wellesley provides resources for addressing sexual harassment in the classroom.